A small-step cleaning plan

Blank weekly sheet

Week / label: _____

Day	Area	Small next action	Minutes	Status

Review without catching up on everything

Estimated total: _____ Done: _____ Still planned: _____ Skipped: _____

My next small restart point: _____

One thing to drop or simplify: _____

Choose one visible action. Add an estimate, not a deadline for being perfect.

Use planned, done or skipped. Adjust the plan when the day changes.

This is an organizational worksheet, not medical guidance or ADHD treatment.

For editable entries and JSON backup, open the free online cleaning planner.

A small-step cleaning plan

Fictional filled example - estimates, not actual time tracking

Week / label: Example week

Day	Area	Small next action	Minutes	Status
Monday	Office	Clear one desk corner	5	Done
Tuesday	Kitchen	Clear sink area	10	Planned
Friday	Bedroom	Fold one small basket	5	Skipped

Review without catching up on everything

Estimated total: 20 min | Done: 5 | Still planned: 10 | Skipped: 5

Resume point: clear just the sink area when I choose to restart.

Skipped is a decision, not a debt to add to tomorrow.

Choose one visible action. Add an estimate, not a deadline for being perfect.
Use planned, done or skipped. Adjust the plan when the day changes.
This is an organizational worksheet, not medical guidance or ADHD treatment.
For editable entries and JSON backup, open the free online cleaning planner.